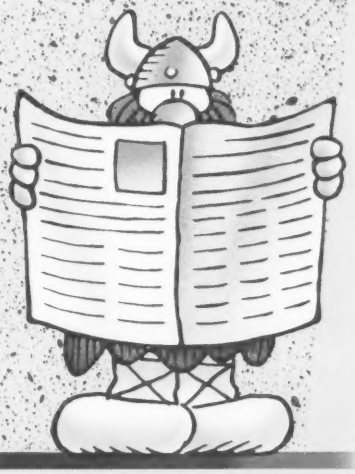
Hints From Heloise

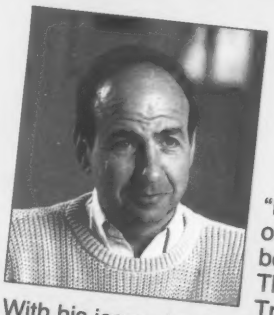
The world's most respected consumer adviser — and everyone's favorite know-it-all! Heloise's money-saving, time-saving hints and how-tos help your readers overcome life's drudgeries. Or prepare for medical emergencies. Or inexpensively decorate a room. No other column covers so much territory — attic to basement, indoors and out, head to toe, 'round the world, too, with travel tips to ease the way. Plus hints on rearing kids, raising pets and coping with life in general. When your readers need some help, it's Heloise to the rescue in 500 + newspapers! 6TW & S

Lewis Grizzard

Lewis Grizzard says he grew up normal. But suddenly he found himself in this strange modern world where weird things happened. He's confused. He's also a best-selling author and 3,000 letters behind in answering his fan mail! With America's favorite humorist, nothing is sacred and everything is funny. He writes about divorce, politics, barbecue, patriotism, Mother and newfangled nuisances. He's moved from The Atlanta Constitution & Journal to Chicago's Sun-Times and back again. A train buff, Grizzard has definite ideas about planes: "Ever notice the first thing you see in an airport? A big sign that says 'Terminal.' " He touches our lives because we've all been there. 3TW

From Today's King Features





Uncivil Liberties

"If someone smiles on the bus on the way home, that would be a reasonable goal of mine." There's no doubt that Calvin Trillin has reached that goal! With his iconoclastic, humorously grumpy brand of wit, Trillin writes with a fluent clarity on personal, social and political matters and mores. Until now, he wrote his "Uncivil Liberties" column for the The Nation. He's a highly acclaimed reporter for The New Yorker and author of two comic novels and a renowned series of books. Shouldn't your readers be able to smile with one of America's most versatile writers? Weekly

Ask Dr. Ruth

Who says sex is good for you? Dr. Ruth Westheimer, the best thing to happen to sex since Adam met Eve, is making sex a household word! The diminutive and dynamic Dr. Ruth dispels sexual misconceptions and dispenses sound, practical advice on your readers' most personal questions. Addressing the emotional as well as the clinical side of sex, Dr. Ruth writes from first-hand experience in helping people of all ages to achieve happier, healthier relationships. With her LIFETIME cable TV show, her NBC radio show, best-selling books, extensive media coverage, plus her active private counseling practice and medical affiliations, it's no wonder she's America's most trusted sex educator, therapist and media psychologist! 2TW

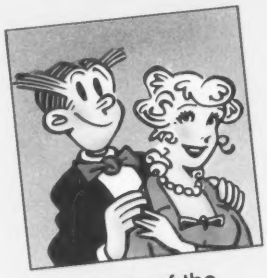
King Features' World Favorites Create Loyal Readers

BLONDIE

by Young & Drake



Blondie, Dagwood, their kids Cookie and Alexander, the ever-faithful Daisy and her pups are the world's First Family of the Funnies! Everyone identifies with their daily doings — eating, sleeping, raising their family, making a living, loving and laughing. With Mr. Dithers, the Woodleys, Mr. Beasley the postman and the inevitable salesmen, the Bumsteads appear in more than 2,000 newspapers! By Dean Young and Stan Drake. D&S

Hi and Lois

by MORT WALKER and DIK BROWNE

What's so special about the Flagstons — Hi, Lois, their kids Dot, Ditto, Chip and Trixie — and "Dawg"? They're for real! The all-American family we grew up with, they're loving and lovable even when they disagree, rebel against discipline or do outrageous things. Now in their fourth decade, Hi and Lois continue to cope with the changing patterns of daily life, always finding something laughable about it all. By Mort Walker & Dik Browne. D&S beetle bailey®

by mort walker

Camp Swampy, an amorphous mess long forgotten by the Pentagon, is home to the world's wackiest Army platoon. Beetle Bailey, the eternal private, considers it his solemn duty to sleep whenever possible, needle Sarge, avoid work at all costs and have fun with his friends! Beetle and his pals keep 'em laughing every day. By Mort Walker. D&S

HÄGAR®

by DIK BROWNE

Hägar is an affectionate, hapless Viking. Although he thinks of himself as a mighty warrior, he's got no power struggle at home — Helga's word goes, absolutely! A gentle family man, Hägar's in the business of sacking and looting. But no one ever gets hurt in his raids — except from laughing too hard! With Lucky Eddie and his crew, Hägar's out to conquer the world's newspaper readers. By Dik Browne. D&S

The FAMILY CIRCUS®

BIL KEANE

Just consider the normal life of an ordinary family with typical children, freeze a one-second frame and you have the whole idea of The Family Circus! People both young and old recognize the humor in those routine slices of life we have all experienced. Daddy, Mommy, Billy, Dolly, Jeffy, PJ and the family pets are warm and funny, and definite favorites with readers. By Bil Keane. D&S

Introducing King Features' New Comics!

Disney's Gummi Bears™

Draw young readers into your pages with characters they already know and love — Disney's GUMMI BEARS! Specially created with care and charm, the comic strip brings the adventures of the magical, heartwarming little creatures into kids' hearts to be treasured! The top-rated NBC-TV stars, focus of national promotions, are bouncing into your comics pages! D&S

© The Walt Disney Company

POPS PLACE

BY SCRAMS

The real world never darkens the door of this wacky establishment! Pops and his partner Harve thought life would be simpler if they could own their own pub. Little did they know they'd have to contend with Enid, waitress extraordinaire, or customers like Red, Pops' hard hat fishing pal, and Prof. Riddle, philosopher at not-so-legendary Yahoo U. With all the half-baked ideas served up at POPS PLACE, your readers are in for a treat! D&S

ZIPPY THE PINHEAD

BILL GRIFFITH

"Are we having fun yet?" King Features introduces the comic strip with a point! Some say Zippy is a walking subconscious or social commentator. Others aren't sure what he is — or why he dresses in a clown suit and has a penchant for taco sauce, Ding Dongs and Cool Whip. One thing's for sure: Zippy's timeless non sequiturs will bring fun — and readers — to your comics pages! D

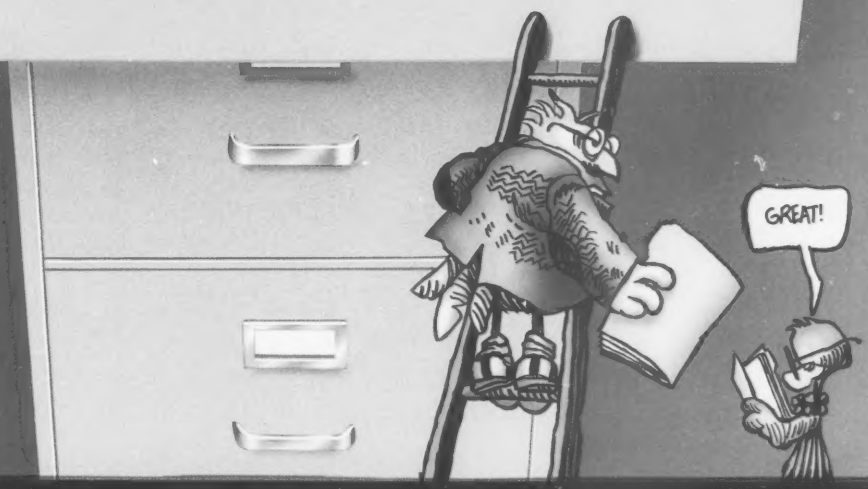
Top-Drawer Talent

A Tradition of Creativity

TMS

Tribune Media Services



Fresh, New Talent.

We've got what your readers demand — the hottest new features on the market today. From the irreverent Howard Cosell to the wonderfully imaginative new children's strip, "Snapdragon," we're always searching for the best talent available to expand our list of quality news and features.

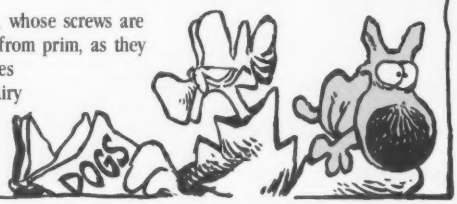
Cosell.

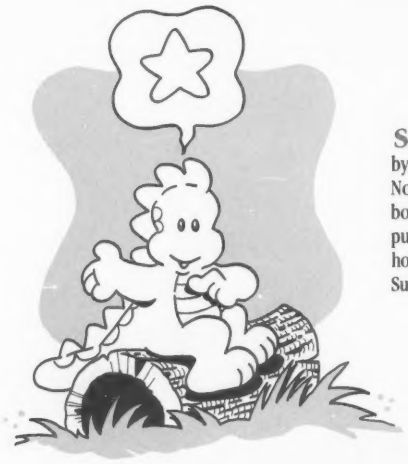
From football to boxing, Howard Cosell tells your readers what's going on in the sports world. To over three generations of sports fans, Cosell is sports. 2tw.

Mother Goose & Grimm

by Mike Peters.

Tag along with Mother Goose, whose screws are loose, and Grimm, who's far from prim, as they meet characters and adventures not found in any children's fairy tale book. For the child in everyone. Daily and Sunday.

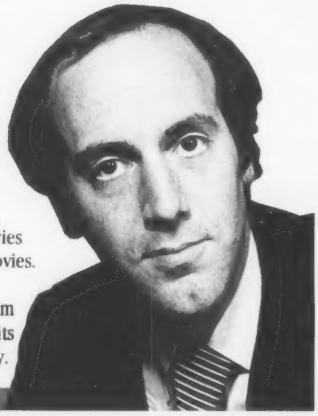




Snapdragon

by Steve Barr.

Now children can enjoy a comic strip that's both fun and educational — a comic and puzzle combined in one. Sure to attract and hold those younger readers! Daily and Sunday.

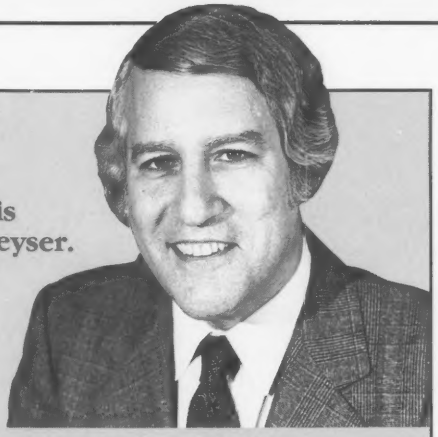


Gene Siskel.

Siskel's Flicks Picks takes your readers to the movies with his capsule reviews of the newest first-run movies. Weekly.

And in Siskel On Movies, America's most popular film critic takes a close look at the movie industry and its stars, and tells your readers all about them. Weekly.

Tribune Media Services



Louis Rukeyser.

Whether it's trends in the stock market, politics, commerce and banking or capitalism, Rukeyser sifts through the complicated facts and gives it to your readers straight. Weekly.

Boomers' Song

by David Horsey.

A comical look at the baby boom generation through the lives of seven "boomers" who epitomize their counterparts in the real world. Sure to strike a chord of familiarity with your audience. Daily and Sunday.

Mister Boffo

by Joe Martin.

In this off-beat comic strip, we meet Mister Boffo and his wonder dog, Weederman. No matter where this duo roams, hilarity follows. Daily and Sunday.

Will Wynn Lotto Information.

If you have a state lottery in your area, you can help your readers by giving them the winning edge through a computer analysis of the frequency of winning numbers. 2tw.

Doug Marlette.

His piercing cartoons are compelling, witty and on the mark. The National Headliner Award and the Robert F. Kennedy Award are two examples of the quality Marlette can add to your paper. 4tw.

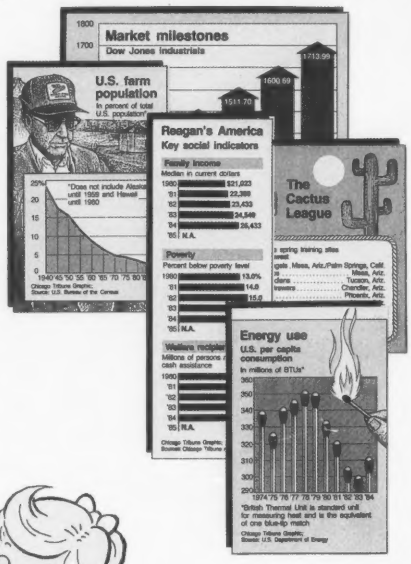
Industry Leaders with Proven Appeal.

TMS features demand attention. Names like Andy Rooney, Mike Royko, Jeff MacNelly, Bob Greene and Marilyn Beck guarantee readership. Look to TMS for the best in comics, commentary, humor and insight. Only a full-service syndicate can offer this range of information from such credible sources.

by Jeff MacNelly.
From the Treetops Tattler-Tribune, a group of bird-brained journalists offers a hilarious perspective on life. Daily and Sunday.

Chicago Tribune Graphics Service.

Twice weekly you receive two timely, camera-ready sheets of general and specialized charts, maps and stand-alone graphics to supplement your daily news coverage.

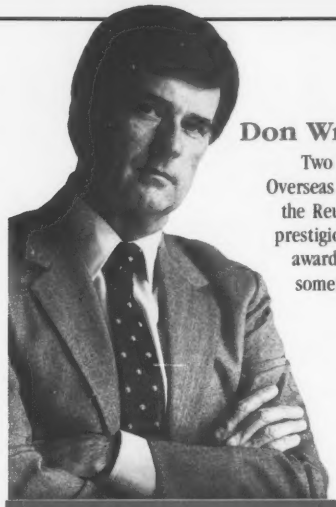


Gasoline Alley by Jim Scancarelli.
For more than 60 years, families have turned to their newspapers to follow the most famous family on the comic pages. Gasoline Alley continues to be an American family tradition of love and warmth, humor and irony. Daily and Sunday.

Marilyn Beck.

Marilyn Beck delivers the hottest scoops and interviews the hottest stars in Hollywood today. 8tw.

Tribune Media Services

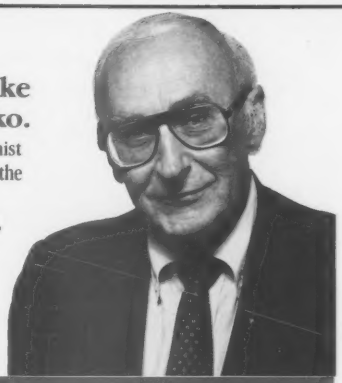


Don Wright.

Two Pulitzer Prizes, five Overseas Press Club Awards, the Reuben Award and the prestigious Sigma Delta Chi award. He must be doing something "Wright!" 4tw.

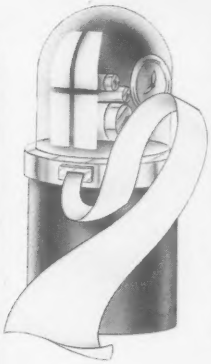
Mike Royko.

There is no other columnist as unpredictable and on the mark as Royko. From politics to foreign affairs, to little oddities anywhere in the world, Royko stirs the emotions in your readers. 3tw.



Bob Greene.

Greene's poignant pen paints word portraits of America. Her rich and poor, famous and unknown, funny and sad. Bob Greene covers the American beat. 3tw.



Insider Trading.

This feature provides up-to-the-minute information on the buys, sells and options exercised by corporate insiders of major corporations. The list of transactions can be tailored to your needs.

Successful Investing

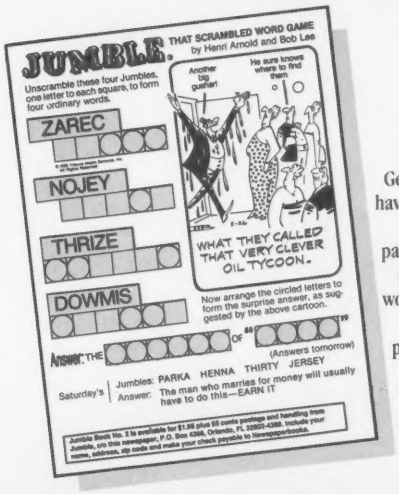
by Andrew Leckey.

Andrew Leckey reduces complicated business jargon to give your readers clear, concise investment advice to help them plan and manage their own financial portfolios. 3tw.

Horoscopes

by Joyce Jillson.

Joyce Jillson looks to the stars daily to bring your readers a full package of astrological features — forecasts, birthdays and Q & A's. Daily.



JUMBLE. THAT SCRAMBLED WORD GAME by Henri Arnold and Bob Lee

Unscramble these four Jumbles, one letter to each square, to form four ordinary words.

THRIZE

DOWMIS

Another big gasher!

He sure knows where to find them

WHAT THEY CALLED THAT VERY CLEVER OIL TYCOON.

Now arrange the circled letters to form the surprise answer, as suggested by the above cartoon.

Answer: THE ____ OF "____" (Answers tomorrow)

Saturday's Jumbles: PARKA HENNA THIRTY JERSEY

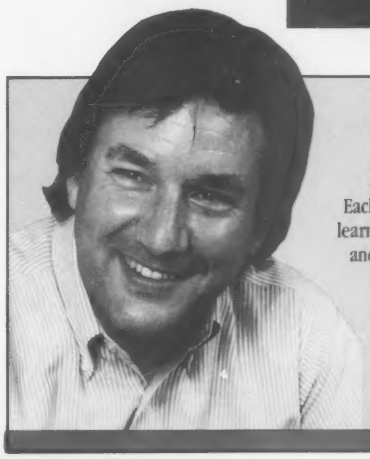
Answer: The man who marries for money will usually have to do this—EARN IT

Jumble Book No. 2 is available for $1.95 plus 50 cents postage and handling from Jumble, c/o this newspaper, P.O. Box 4366, Orlando, FL 32802-4366. Include your name, address, zip code and make your check payable to Newspaper Books.

Jumble

by Henri Arnold and Bob Lee.

Generations of readers have grown up with the fun and word play packed in every Jumble puzzle. Unscrambling words with the help of a funny cartoon is perfect for those who love a challenge. Daily and Sunday.

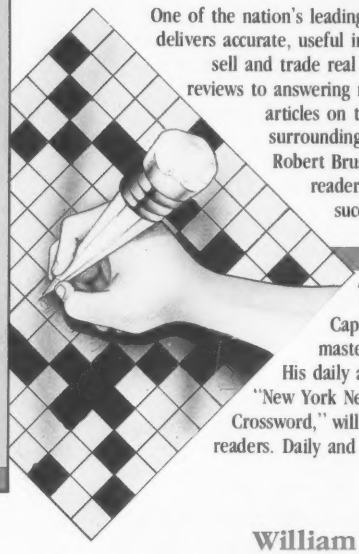


Tom Peters on Excellence.

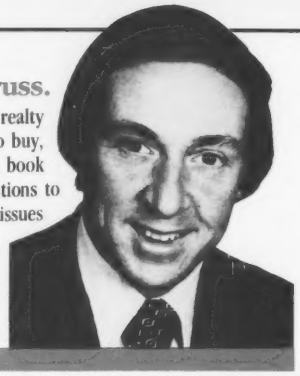
Each week your readers learn the most advanced and latest management techniques from the man who wrote the book on corporate excellence. Weekly.

The Best in the Business.

We've got the features that build reader loyalty. Take business — with names like Louis Rukeyser, Tom Peters, William Donoghue, Andrew Leckey and Robert Bruss, our line-up is solid from top to bottom.



Robert Bruss.

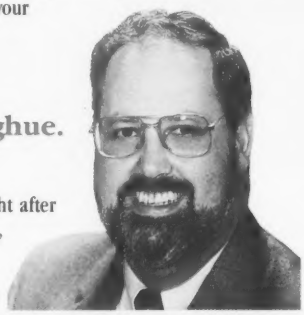


One of the nation's leading experts on realty delivers accurate, useful information to buy, sell and trade real estate. From book reviews to answering readers' questions to articles on the laws and issues surrounding real estate, Robert Bruss tells your readers how to be successful. 7tw.

The Crossword.

Capture the crossword fans in your area with puzzle master Herb Ettenson's challenging crossword puzzles. His daily and Sunday crosswords, or an easier version, the "New York News Crossword," plus the newest, "TV Crossword," will satisfy all your readers. Daily and Sunday.

William Donoghue.



Donoghue provides a down-to-earth analysis of the most eagerly sought after investment opportunities, backed by sound, original advice. 2tw.
Banks vs. Money Funds is the only feature to compare the highest yields offered on bank Money Market Accounts, CDs and Money Market funds. By William Donoghue and Robert K. Heady. Weekly.
And Donoghue's Money Market Funds Table and Tax-Free Money Funds Chart are the most widely accepted measures of the performance of Money Market funds. Weekly.

Kudzu

by Doug Marlette.
This light-hearted strip is all about life in a small town called Bypass. Its population, including a country preacher, a group of good old boys, a chocoholic parakeet and Kudzu, will have even your city slickers laughing. Daily and Sunday.

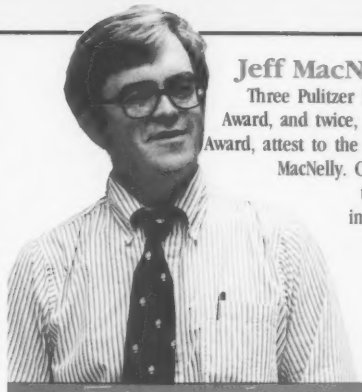
Liz Smith.

New York's most famous people watcher, Liz Smith talks to those in the limelight and delivers inside stories and titillating tidbits. 5tw.

Brenda Starr

by Mary T. Schmich and Ramona Fradon.

Brenda Starr, the ravishing redhead of the comic strip serials, has been entertaining newspaper readers for more than 45 years with her style, romantic escapades and unique brand of reportorial cunning. Daily and Sunday.



Jeff MacNelly.

Three Pulitzer Prizes, the George Polk Award, and twice, the prestigious Reuben Award, attest to the masterful talent of Jeff MacNelly. Covering the world with trail-blazing humor and incomparable cartooning. 3tw.

Increase your revenues and lower your production costs with the use of our bold face ads in your TV listings. Your ads are automatically inserted into the listings data base prior to electronic transmission to your paper.

Why settle for a one-line grid format with little or no information, which forces your readers to look elsewhere? The selection in program detail from Tribune TV Log is limited only by your imagination. Supplement the grid format with any type of rolling log presentation, highlights package and/or breakouts you wish. Let your readers see prime time at a glance without having to look at another source for information.

As always, you can depend on Tribune TV Log for accurate descriptions, excellent movie reviews and custom-designed listings to your exact specifications.

You Can Use The Best.

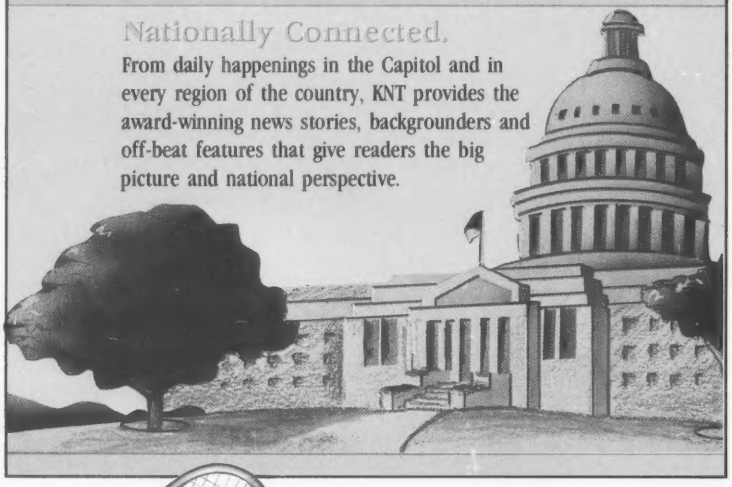
The KNT news wire is the most complete supplemental service in the nation, reflective of the editorial resources of its parent companies — the Knight-Ridder and Tribune Company papers, with The Dallas Morning News and The Boston Globe.

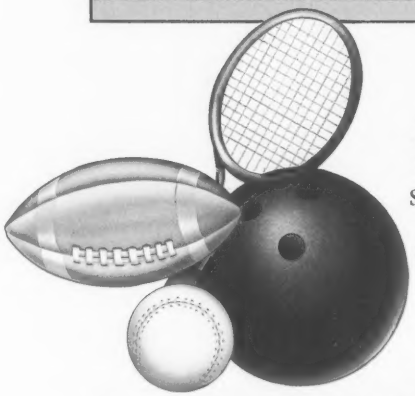
Worldwide Correspondents.

From abroad, KNT's 35 foreign correspondents bring you the best reporting on international events from world capitals including Moscow, Jerusalem, San Salvador, Hong Kong, Mexico City, Tel Aviv, Peking and Nairobi.

Nationally Connected.

From daily happenings in the Capitol and in every region of the country, KNT provides the award-winning news stories, backgrounders and off-beat features that give readers the big picture and national perspective.





Something For Every Section Of Your Paper.

Sports, of course, with KNT's top writers from some of the best newspapers in the country. Plus coverage of lifestyles, the arts, medicine, science, business, show-biz, books and travel.

KNT offers more top bylines. More choices. And more useful news and features from contributing newspapers that collected nine Pulitzer Prizes in 1986. Explore the total package of supplemental material available to your paper through KNT. You can use the best.

COMICS

PEANUTS®

by Charles M. Schulz

Good grief! Where would we be without Charlie Brown and Snoopy? The Peanuts gang has been bringing us warmth and laughter since 1950. No wonder it's the most popular comic in the world!

GARFIELD®

by Jim Davis

Garfield brings the art of napping and eating to new heights. This fat feline has continued to catapult forward, becoming the second most popular comic strip in the world.

DRABBLE®

by Kevin Fagan

Drabble bumbled his way into our lives in 1979 and has been getting laughs ever since. Along with a zany collection of family, friends and pets, Drabble entertains his fans by just being himself.

ROBOTMAN®

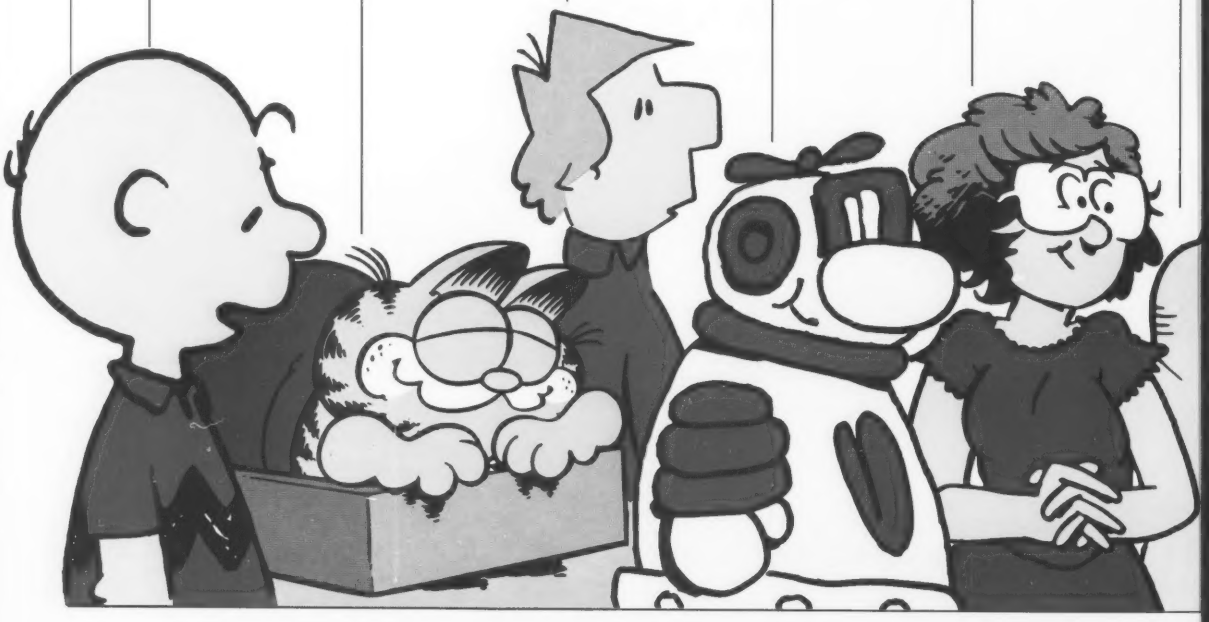
by Jim Meddick

Robotman landed on the comics pages in 1985 and immediately found a home in the hearts (and funny bones) of thousands of humans. Now going strong in his second year, Robotman is in newspapers around the world.

ROSE IS ROSE®

by Pat Brady

A housewife and proud of it, Rose finds the humor in everyday life. Rated No. 1 in two reader surveys, and in the top five in others, the outlook for this newcomer certainly is rosy.



U.S. ACRES™

by Jim Davis

In March 1986, Orson the Pig and his barnyard buddies enjoyed the biggest launch in comics history, starting in more than 500 newspapers. And the fun keeps growing.

FRANCIE™

by Sherrie Shepherd

The newest success from UFS, launching in September. Francie is a contemporary woman, juggling her office, home and social life. Her snappy one-liners really hit home.

ASK SHAGG®

by Peter Guren

The only comic strip dog that answers readers' questions about animals. Shagg's answers are pure fact — his comic asides are pure fun. Thousands of letters a month keep Shagg busy.

NANCY®

by Jerry Scott

Look again! Nancy may look familiar but contemporary humor has brought her up to date. Nancy is still one of the most-loved classic comics characters, building on her popularity since 1940.

MARMADUKE®

by Brad Anderson

Without ever saying a word, Marmaduke is a born comedian. His antics have been entertaining readers for more than 30 years. He's a Great Dane with a great following.

COLUMNS

MISS MANNERS®

Etiquette for the '80s, from writing thank-you notes to introducing live-in lovers. Judith Martin politely offers sound advice with a generous helping of wit.

SUPERMARKET SHOPPER

Martin Sloane has refined coupon clipping into a highly successful system that means big savings at the checkout. Smart shoppers can profit from this informative column.

ALAN DERSHOWITZ

This Harvard Law School professor and well-known civil liberties lawyer explains the meaning behind today's newsmaking court decisions in layman's terms.

THE KINSEY REPORT™

The unmistakable source for human sexuality information. Dr. June Reinisch, director of the Kinsey Institute for Research in Sex, Gender and Reproduction, answers readers' questions sensitively with facts, not advice.

DONALD LAMBRO

A Washington-based investigative reporter, Lambro is famous for uncovering government mismanagement and waste. Lambro looks into politics, economics, foreign affairs and timely issues with unrelenting energy.

TUNE IN TONIGHT™

With Judy Flander's television reviews as a guide, viewers can tune in to TV's best choices every night, to make the most of their viewing time.

ROBERT METZ

New investment ideas to help readers increase their net worth, plus behind-the-scenes reporting of big business and its finances. Metz has more than three decades of financial journalism behind him.

THE SLIM GOURMET

Barbara Gibbons presents delicious, easy-to-prepare recipes in slimmed-down versions. A true "slim gourmet," Ms. Gibbons knows how to cut calories without sacrificing great taste.

TUNE IN TOMORROW

Nancy Reichardt keeps soap opera fans informed about their favorite stories and stars. With news, interviews and weekly summaries, this column is essential reading for soap opera lovers.

JACK ANDERSON

His Pulitzer Prize-winning investigative journalism gives readers hard facts and fresh insights. His uncanny ability to scoop a story is what makes Anderson's column so popular, appearing in some 1,000 newspapers.

COMIC PANELS

DOLLARS AND NONSENSE™

by Robert Mankoff

Robert Mankoff's panel provides upscale and on-target humor for the business page. Five days a week, this well-known New Yorker cartoonist lambasts a different (but deserving) segment of the business world.

OFF THE LEASH®

by W.B. Park

Unleashed humor running wild. Park gives humans zany new insights into animals in his comic panel. From bugs to bears, animals definitely have the upper hand here.

EDITORIAL CARTOONS

MIKE PETERS

Winner of the 1981 Pulitzer Prize for editorial cartooning, Peters gets to the heart of politics with wit and insight.

DICK WRIGHT

Editorial cartoonist for the Providence Journal & Bulletin, Wright creates cartoons that make people think while they laugh.

HENRY PAYNE

Drawing from the political front in Washington, Payne, a conservative, is editorial cartoonist for Scripps Howard Newspapers.

COMICS

FRANK AND ERNEST®

by Bob Thaves

These two ragged philosophers are superstars in over 1,500 newspapers. They've been spreading their wit and wisdom to millions of fans since 1971.

THE BORN LOSER®

by Art Sansom

He's no loser when it comes to laughs. Just ask his fans in more than 1,500 newspapers.

CAPTAIN EASY®

by Bill Crooks and Mick Casale

From outer space espionage to underwater adventure, Captain Easy's life of danger keeps readers hanging on for more.

MR. MEN™ AND LITTLE MISS™

by Roger Hargreaves and Paul Sellers

These amusing little characters provide plenty of laughs for children around the world.

KIT 'N' CARLYLE®

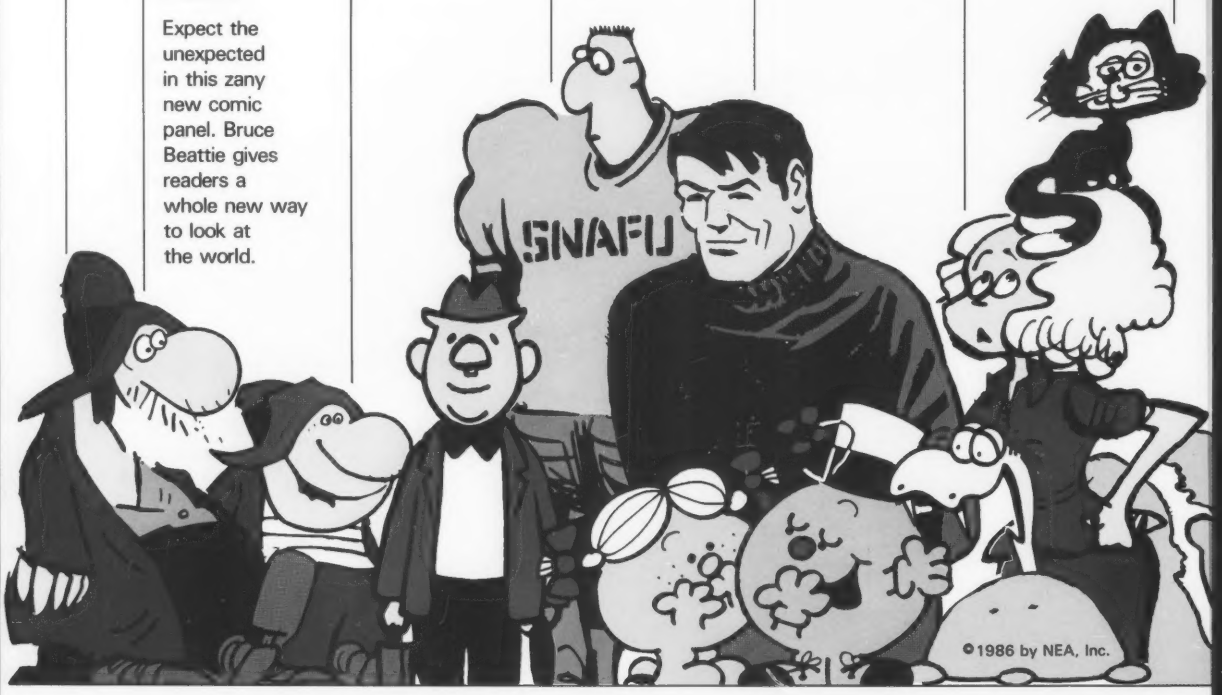
by Larry Wright

Cat lovers aren't the only ones who enjoy this panel about a feisty little kitten named Carlyle and the funny pranks she plays on her owner, Kit.

SNAFU™

by Bruce Beattie

Expect the unexpected in this zany new comic panel. Bruce Beattie gives readers a whole new way to look at the world.



©1986 by NEA, Inc.

ALLEY OOP®

by Dave Graue

The original caveman from the land of Moo, Alley Oop is a classic -- entertaining readers for more than 50 years.

BUGS BUNNY®

by Warner Brothers

What a wabbit! Bugs Bunny has been cleverly outsmarting his foes while entertaining his fans in newspapers since 1943.

EEK & MEEK®

by Howie Schneider

They're cool, they're skinny and they're always funny. So how come these two guys can't get a date?

WINTHROP®

by Dick Cavalli

Winthrop and his neighborhood pals are just as funny and lovable today as when they debuted 30 years ago.

ARLO AND JANIS®

by Jimmy Johnson

Baby boomer humor is big in this popular new strip about coping with the '80s after growing up in the '60s.

SNAKE TALES™

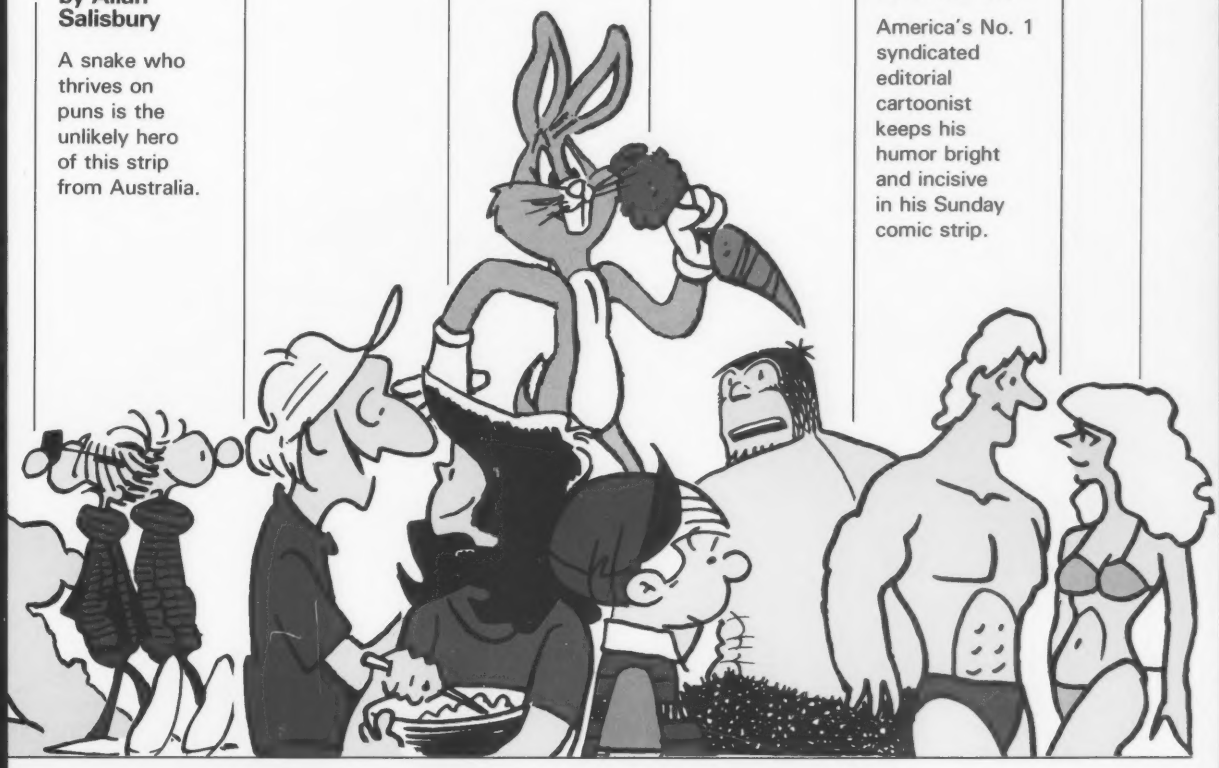
by Allan Salisbury

A snake who thrives on puns is the unlikely hero of this strip from Australia.

BERRY'S WORLD™

by Jim Berry

America's No. 1 syndicated editorial cartoonist keeps his humor bright and incisive in his Sunday comic strip.



COLUMNS

DR. PETER GOTT

America's most widely published syndicated medical column. With reliable advice and caring manner, Dr. Peter Gott is as reassuring as a house call.

BEN WATTENBERG

Whether addressing worldwide affairs or domestic issues, Wattenberg's commentary brings statistics to life to explain current events.

WILLIAM RUSHER

In The Conservative Advocate, Rusher, publisher of National Review, comments on American and world politics from his position as a leading conservative spokesman.

ROBERT WAGMAN

Robert Wagman gets behind the headlines to report the inside story on issues of national importance. His hard-hitting news analysis digs into all aspects of politics.

ROBERT WALTERS

Reporting from around the country and Washington, Walters' investigative journalism gives readers a front-row seat to the political scene.

TOM TIEDE

From coast to coast, Tiede talks to and writes about the everyday people who aren't making headlines, but whose lives make up the diverse fabric of America.

JAMES JACOBY

James Jacoby, championship bridge player, writes the No. 1 syndicated bridge column in America, continuing the popular column his father began more than 30 years ago.

ASTRO-GRAPH®

Millions of readers turn to Bernice Bede Osol's column daily to see what's in the stars for them. Astro-Graph is the top-ranked syndicated astrology column in America.

GEORGE McGOVERN

Senator McGovern writes about politics from an insider's point of view, bringing his years of experience and knowledge of government to his column.

CHUCK STONE

Determined to stir up his readers' thinking, Stone writes a provocative column. From global events to national politics, Stone focuses on how today's issues affect blacks.

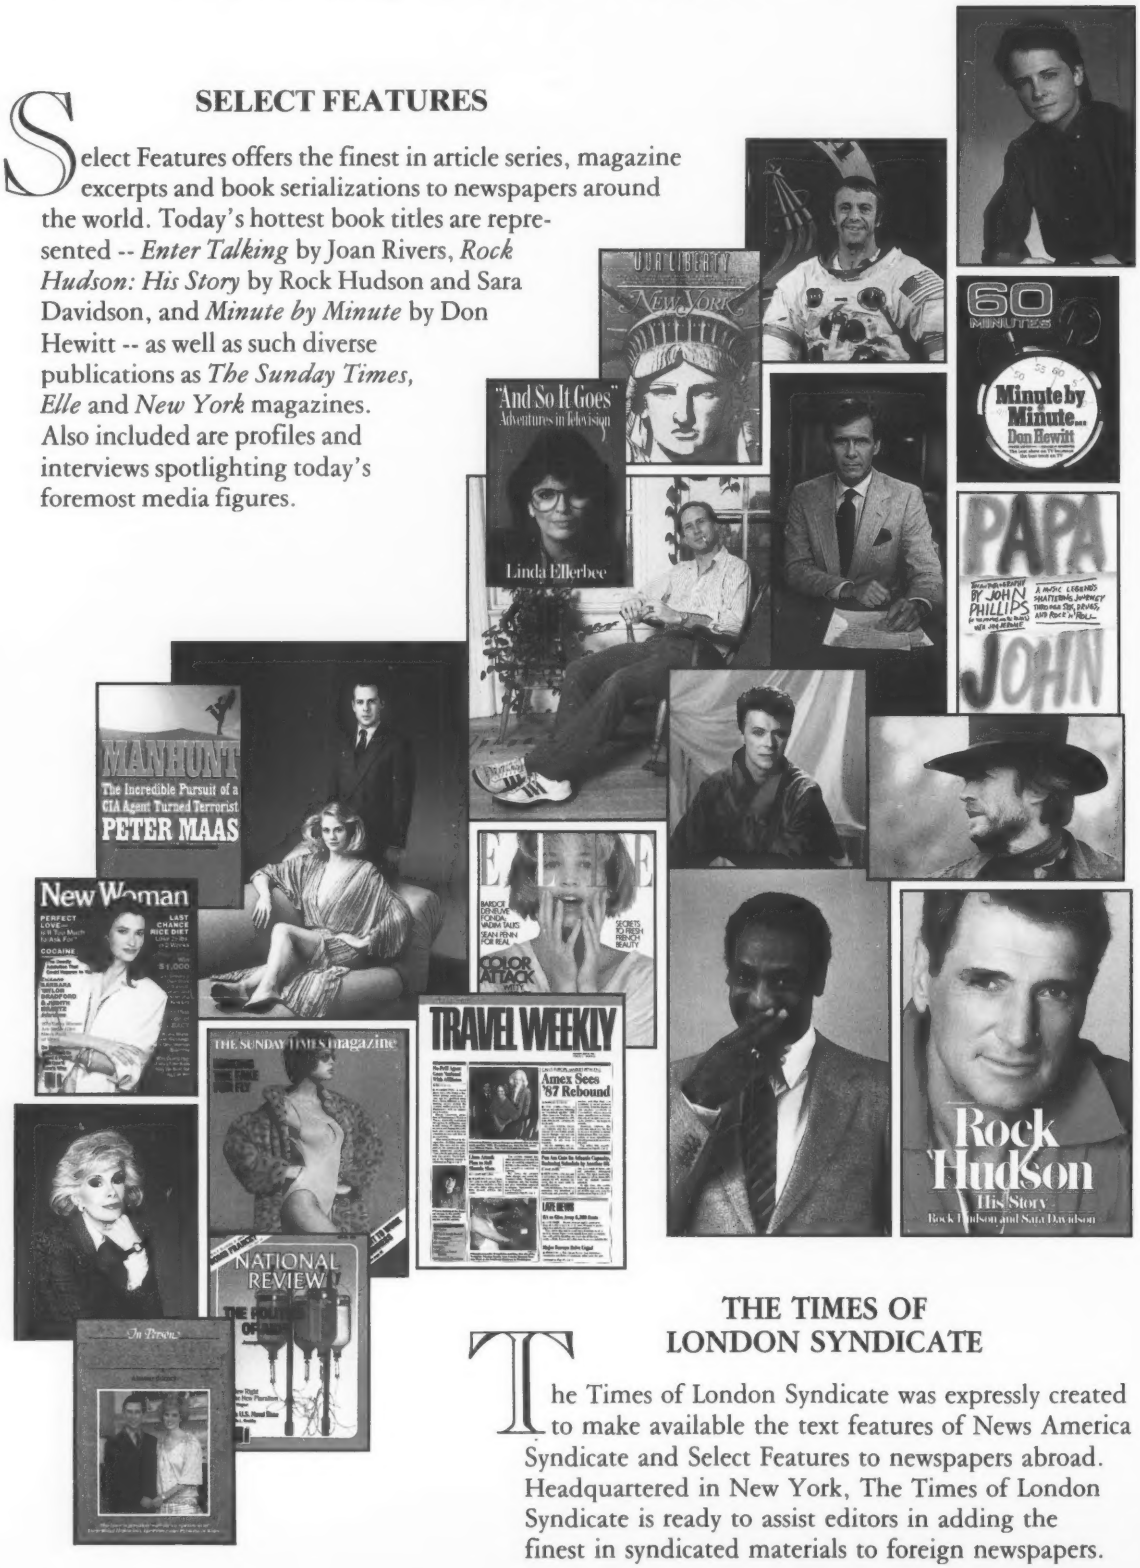
NEWS AMERICA SYNDICATE
THE TIMES OF LONDON SYNDICATE

THE BIGGEST AND THE BEST

NEWS AMERICA SYNDICATE

SELECT FEATURES

Select Features offers the finest in article series, magazine excerpts and book serializations to newspapers around the world. Today's hottest book titles are represented -- Enter Talking by Joan Rivers, Rock Hudson: His Story by Rock Hudson and Sara Davidson, and Minute by Minute by Don Hewitt -- as well as such diverse publications as The Sunday Times, Elle and New York magazines. Also included are profiles and interviews spotlighting today's foremost media figures.



THE TIMES OF LONDON SYNDICATE

The Times of London Syndicate was expressly created to make available the text features of News America Syndicate and Select Features to newspapers abroad. Headquartered in New York, The Times of London Syndicate is ready to assist editors in adding the finest in syndicated materials to foreign newspapers.

ANN LANDERS

Seven days a week for more than 30 years, people have turned to Ann Landers for the common sense, candor, superlative sources and humor that have made her the most widely syndicated columnist in the world. In 1985, Ann Landers was the first journalist to receive the Albert Lasker Award, the nation's most prestigious medical honor, awarded her for writing "one of the most respected and influential human relations columns in the history of journalism."

CARL ROWAN

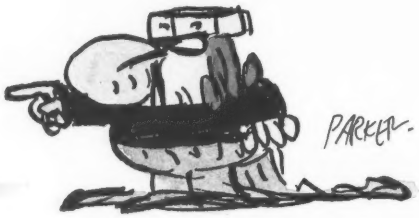
An eloquent spokesman for the liberal point of view, Carl Rowan has received, among other distinguished awards, four Emmys and Washington's Capitol Press Club's journalist of the year award.

ROGER EBERT

Movie reviewer Roger Ebert, co-star of television's Siskel & Ebert & the Movies and the only film critic to win a Pulitzer Prize, combines outstanding movie reviews, interviews and personality profiles in his popular column.

THE WIZARD OF ID

The true wizards behind The Wizard of Id are Johnny Hart and 1985 National Cartoonists Society's Reuben award winner Brant Parker, who have enchanted readers of 1,000 newspapers for more than 20 years.



B.C.

Johnny Hart, recipient of the 1965 Reuben award, evolutionized comic humor nearly 30 years ago and continues to delight modern audiences of more than 1,000 newspapers with B.C.'s prehistoric pranks.

MARVIN

Tom Armstrong's Marvin is the baby of the '80s, a far-from-typical toddler who's the apple of his family's eye. It's not difficult to understand why -- he's already the star of four trad paperbacks and a variety of licensed products.

THE BIGGEST AND THE BEST

DENNIS THE MENACE

No one embodies the exuberance of youth like Dennis, the forever five-year-old who turned 35 this year. Reuben award winner Hank Ketcham keeps readers young at heart with Dennis' antics, appearing in more than 1,000 newspapers. The perennial upstart will make his animated debut in a TV series this fall.

MOMMA

There's no place like home … and no one quite like Momma. Mell Lazarus' insights into the methodology of motherhood have earned him a legion of loyal fans and the 1982 Reuben for cartoonist of the year.

SALLY FORTH

Lawyer-turned-cartoonist Greg Howard examines the modern two-career family with a perfect balance of humor and irony, as evidenced by Sally's consistently high rankings in readership surveys.

NEWS AMERICA SYNDICATE

ANDY CAPP

Reg Smythe's Andy Capp is unmistakably British, but his character strikes a universal chord with readers of more than 1,400 newspapers. Ever a creature of habit, Andy has one less bad one these days: he's given up cigarettes.

LUANN

Besides regular appearances in 'Teen and Junior Scholastic magazines, Greg Evans' 13-year-old heroine stars in two paperbacks, a musical and, in a specially created edition of Luann, in more than 700 high school newspapers.

CROCK

Shiftier than the sands of the Sahara and thornier than any cactus -- that's Vermin P. Crock, iron-fisted commandant of Rechin and Wilder's truly foreign legion.

FUNKY WINKERBEAN

Former teacher Tom Batiuk captures the high school experience with Funky and his friends, whose extra-curricular activities include two trade paperbacks, a musical and a number of licensed products.

THE BIGGEST AND THE BEST

TUMBLEWEEDS

As popular with cowboy fans as it is with Indians, Tom K. Ryan's unique humor sets the stage for this popular stage-coach saga, which celebrated its 20th anniversary in 1985.

MISS PEACH

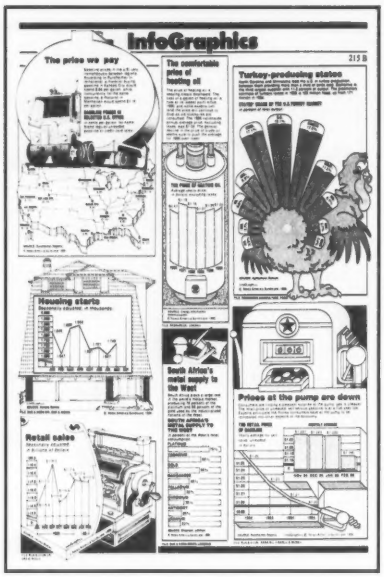
The pint-sized prodigies of The Kelly School explore some very sophisticated viewpoints under the tutelage of Miss Peach and the comic genius of Mell Lazarus.

OUT OF BOUNDS

The veteran comic team of Rechin and Wilder takes a swing at sports from football to arm wrestling in a new feature available in both strip and panel formats.

WILLY 'N ETHEL

Ethel is the salt of the earth: Willy is the beer and pretzels. Joe Martin's zany humor turns America's favorite couple of losers into big winners -- on the comics pages and in two trade paperbacks.



INFOGRAPHICS

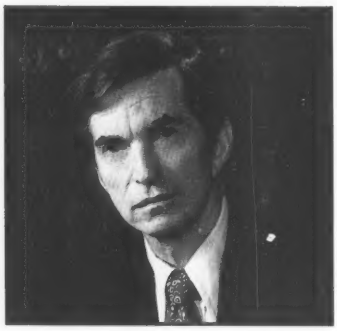
InfoGraphics' maps, charts and explanatory graphics can accompany news pieces or stand alone. A cumulative index, base maps and bonus supplements complete the package.

JUDY MARKEY

Humorist Judy Markey is a lecturer, guest columnist for USA Today, radio and TV celebrity and author whose ability to get to the heart of any matter has given her the reputation of "Mythbuster."

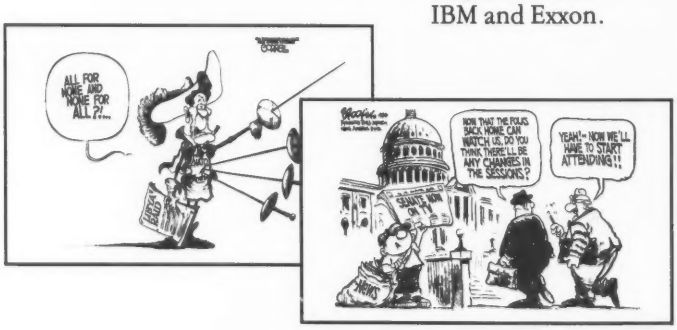
BONDY ON MONEY

Top financial expert Susan Bondy offers people-oriented money management advice in her down-to-earth column. An author, lecturer and radio personality, she is also founder of The Bondy Group, which handles financial planning for such corporations as IBM and Exxon.



ASK DR. LAMB

Ask Dr. Lamb draws on the expertise of a board-certified specialist in internal medicine and former professor at the Baylor College of Medicine in a question/answer format that features graphics and special columns on nutrition and women's health.



THE BEST AND THE WITTIEST

A vibrant cross-section of styles, viewpoints and talent makes The Best and the Wittiest one of political cartooning's timeliest and most diverse offerings.

THE BIGGEST AND THE BEST

SYDNEY J. HARRIS

Sydney J. Harris' point of view is Strictly Personal, a penetrating look at all things human by one of the most respected columnists and authors of our time.

EVANS AND NOVAK

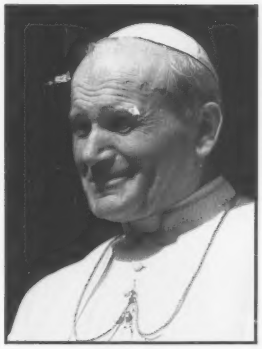
The aggressive reporting team of Rowland Evans and Robert Novak has been at the forefront of Washington's political scene for more than twenty years, cultivating the Inside Report and breaking tomorrow's stories today.

"What makes you think it's a car-bomb?"

MAULDIN

Bill Mauldin, creator of the definitive WWII soldiers Willie and Joe, continues to chronicle military and political events with the incisive style that earned him two Pulitzer Prizes, a Reuben and many other awards.

SELECTED OBSERVATIONS OF POPE JOHN PAUL II



Drawn from the writings of the Holy Father and edited by the Reverend Joseph A. Vadino, this historic and humanitarian column addresses universal issues of political, social and religious implication.

NORMAN PODHORETZ

A chief spokesman for the neo-conservative movement, Norman Podhoretz has written six books and for more than 25 years has been editor of Commentary magazine.

NEWS AMERICA SYNDICATE

HERBLOCK

Three Pulitzer Prizes, nine books and a host of distinguished awards attest to the consistent quality of work produced by editorial cartoonist Herbert Block.

TO YOUR GOOD HEALTH

Dr. Paul Donohue, a specialist in infectious diseases, public health and internal medicine, answers reader questions in a style that reflects his commitment to educating the public about today's medical issues.

DOROTHY RABINOWITZ

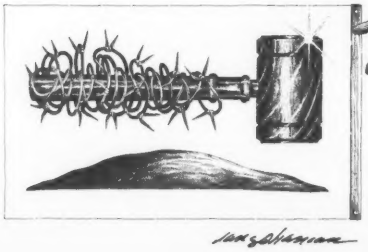
Dorothy Rabinowitz combines analysis of the broadcast media's treatment of news with general commentary in the conservative satirical style that also highlights her appearances on such programs as Nightline and The McLaughlin Group.

DAN DORFMAN

Dan Dorfman's The Bottom Line intercepts tomorrow's business and financial trends, and provides a bridge from the nation's most brilliant financial minds to the average consumer/investor.

GRAPHIC IMPRESSIONS

Graphic Impressions pools the talents of four artists in a versatile package that includes caricatures of prominent personalities plus artistic interpretations of today's news, trends and social issues.



THE BIGGEST AND THE BEST

REX MORGAN, M.D.

Dr. Nick Dallis and artist Tony DiPreta prescribe the perfect blend of drama, entertainment and medical information in this classic, award-winning strip.

MARY WORTH

Mary Worth has changed quite a bit since her days selling apples during the Depression, but one thing has remained constant: she is still the conscience of the comics pages.

APARTMENT 3-G

Three single career women and their relationships give a multi-faceted, heartwarming and often humorous twist to Dr. Nick Dallis and artist Alex Kotzky's drama about life in the city.

JUDGE PARKER

Judge Parker, by Dr. Nick Dallis and artist Harold LeDoux, has entertained loyal readers for more than 30 years with action-packed drama, both in and out of the courtroom.

DUNAGIN'S PEOPLE

Dunagin's People are astronauts, businesspeople, politicians, housewives -- everyman. But all of Dunagin's people have one thing in common: an uncommon sense of humor and an ability to see the lighter side of life's ironies.

Sun Can Shine In Your Newspaper

CAREERS

by Joyce Lain Kennedy

Now in its 18th year, Joyce's column has sparked over a million letters from readers asking for information about tomorrow's world of work. Helping those who want to help themselves is what this column is all about. (3 times a week)

LIVING WITH DIVORCE

by Virginia Doody Klein

Down to earth answers to the thousands of involved questions that face over half of your readership. Sound and sensible advice on etiquette that involves not just the divorced but their children, bosses, friends, and neighbors. (3 times a week)

THE LIBERATED MALE

by Jim Sanderson

Editors find this column especially appealing because of its intelligence, that's why they refer to Jim as a "writer's writer." Sanderson has the rare ability to say something important to upscale, sophisticated readers without talking down to those less worldly. (once a week)

THIS JUST IN

by John Benneth

A daily exaggeration of bad news. The alarming headline is accurate enough ... the twist is that the story is really a rather innocent and humorous one. It belongs in a regular slot so those who daily voice, "hey, listen to this," can find and enjoy Benneth's satire. (daily and Sunday)

CHALLENGER

by Linus Maurer

The little number puzzle that's fun for an Einstein and simple enough for anyone who can add to 36. Numbers are in ... that's why Challenger is enjoyed by puzzle buffs from San Francisco to Holland and from Canada to Venezuela. (daily & Sunday)

YOUR CHANGING WORLD

by Edward Cornish

The President and Founder of the World Future Society provides readers with an interesting and factual look into the future. The only column that authoritatively tries to solve the maze of questions that confront us regarding what our life will be like tomorrow. (once a week)

"This collection of Bill Rentschler's columns reminds us forcefully and sadly of what we are missing in much of today's journalism—those tough no-holds-barred, no-quarter-given, first person editorial voices that once blessed our newspapers. Rentschler reminds us of the greats such as William Allen White and H.L. Mencken who frequently reflected the common wisdom but did not shrink from trumpeting outrageous opinion when they felt their cause was just."
—WALTER CRONKITE

Walter Cronkite and Senator Barry Goldwater agree on Bill Rentschler's columns which appear weekly in the eight News/Voice Newspapers covering 20 hometowns on Chicago's North Shore

"I wish more Americans could read Bill Rentschler's works. They are pithy, to the point and they get that point across."
—U.S. SENATOR BARRY GOLDWATER (Republican, Arizona)

BILL RENTSCHLER
Editor in Chief
News/Voice Newspapers
... nominated twice for a Pulitzer Prize for Distinguished Commentary ... a fresh voice from America's heartland ... an innovative entrepreneur.

THE PAPER SWORD

To be published Fall, 1986 is a collection of Bill Rentschler's "best" weekly columns, which are as fresh, feisty, forceful and memorable as when they first appeared. You'll be treated too, to a gentler side. You won't always agree, but you'll read this book, react ... and remember it!

No one looks at news quite the way we do.

Crain reporters go after the whole story. All the facts. All the background. More than just what happened—what it means, as well. That's what makes Crain's business, industry and trade papers among the best read print media.

When you subscribe to Crain News Service, the expertise of more than 200 reporters is available to you, for less than you pay one reporter on your staff. We offer packages on business news, automotive news, TV, cable and radio, as well as a feature package with cartoons and columns. We offer specialty subjects that include health care, insurance, pensions, investments and much, much more.

We also offer special packages all during the year from which you can build special advertising sections on topics including automobiles, careers, computers, real estate, and the modern office.

For more details, call Art Mertz in Chicago at (312) 649-5303. Outside Illinois, call 1-800-621-6877 toll free.

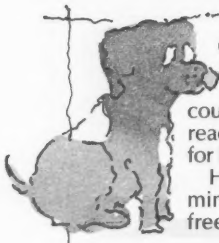
WE DELIVER READERSHIP...

...AND PUT THE BITE



COPLEY NEWS SERVICE ties up what publishers want. A package of readership and revenues.

More than 1500 newspaper and magazine editors across the country and abroad count on Copley packages. Written by top journalists. Zeroing in on what's important to readers. Complete with art. And available camera-ready or via high-speed AP or UPI wire for less than the cost of one free-lance story.

Here's an overview of our newest features and columns, available in several themed mini packages. Bone up on our selection. Then return the attached postage-paid card for free samples or to order.

SPECIAL FEATURE PACKAGES. Twenty-three annual favorites, including Brides, Car Care, Home Improvement, Outdoor Living and Today's Woman. Plus seasonal news like Christmas and Mother's Day. Most with 25 articles and 13 photos/sketches.

FOOD & HEALTH. The package that feeds you readership. With vegetarian and 15-minute meals, microwave recipes, Jeanne Jones' Cook It Light meals, wine and beer reviews, Carol Cutler's party pointers, Rena Coyle's cooking with kids and hearty cookbook reviews. Along with healthy tips on dieting, nutrition, fitness and sports medicine.

EDITORIAL CARTOONS. A package of 11 cartoonists, including award-winners Steve Kelley, Bruce Beattie and Mike Luckovich. The slashing wit of J.D. Crowe and Pat Crowley. And introducing the NY Daily News' Paul Rigby.

EDITORIAL & COMMENTARY. With news and features from our bureaus in Washington and L.A. The analyses of Gregory A. Fossedal, Richard Louv, Phyllis Schlafly, Lionel Van Deerlin and others. Nat Hentoff on civil liberties. Along with up-to-the-minute scoops on politics, international affairs, social issues, future trends, bioethics and the Pacific Basin.

TRAVEL & ADVENTURE. You'll snap up readership with The Purcell's Vacation Camera. Take readers traveling with Arbus/Fox and Phillip Sousa's illustrated destination guides. Give them the best vacation ideas with F.Y.I. Travel Tips. And heat up their vacation fantasies with what's hot in the Americas and the Far East.

ARTS & ENTERTAINMENT. With reviews and interviews that are solid gold for revenues. David Elliott does films. Paul Taublieb's on video. George Christy reaches for the stars. Plus pop, jazz and classical music reviews. TV program and ad previews. Illustrated book reviews. A children's book and audio column. Even an illustrated panel on Hollywood trivia.

TECH TO GO. Your readers want "tecknowledgy." And that's just what our columns on audio, video and electronics deliver. Martin Porter reviews equipment in Future Shop. Dorthea Atwater makes a personal computer user-friendly to everyone. Plus our special Home Technology section, Today's Scene's science and technology features, and Lifewire fillers are what techies thrive on.

ON REVENUES.

THE GOOD LIFE. Surviving home and office requires careers by Natasha Josefowitz. Etiquette by Letitia Baldridge. Pam Satran's One Minute Parent. Polly Bergen's column on today's woman. Dr. Theresa Crenshaw's guide to better sex and relationships. Along with advice for seniors and teens. And the latest in home design, fashion and lifestyle good living.

FINANCIAL & CONSUMER. Don Bauder's financial update and Jay Goldinger's personal investment tips will talk good cents into your readers. While our Consumer Finance Graphic will give them saving savvy and spending smarts. Then we'll compound their interest with tips on careers, business trends, real estate and more.

HOMES & GARDENS. A full house for readers with real estate pointers, architectural plans, remodeling and gardening tips, advice for collecting and renovating antiques, and clues for discovering modern collectibles. There's even a celebrity open house with our At Home With column featuring Famous Amos, Tippi Hedren and other stars. Your readers will love to get behind closed doors with them.

HEADLINERS. Copley's got the write stuff. The bylines that do great things for a newspaper's bottom line. Like Richard Louv, Gregory A. Fossedal, Nat Hentoff, Letitia Baldridge, Joey Berlin, Christopher Finch, Linda Rosenkrantz, Loreen Arbus, Norm Fox and more than 90 other award-winning writers.

MORE THAN 50 OTHER PACKAGES. From comics to crosswords, pets to puzzles, the far side of Crowe's Feats to the new wave of Rick Geary's Perfect Couple and Excursions, Copley delivers what your readers want.

SPORTS & HOBBIES. Readers will think you're a good sport if you give them what they want. Like The America's Cup Notebook. The Baseball/Football Reports. Golf tips. And sports interviews—from boxing to basketball. You can also grab their attention for leisure time with our hobby columns on cameras, cars, chess, crafts, crossword puzzles, graphology and astrology.

Coming Up—An illustrated Children's Mini-Page. Graphics for your financial, health, travel and sports pages. Even a package of stories for the campus set.

Political Commentary

"Fed-Up"
by Don Feder.
The Boston Herald's outspoken columnist is mad as hell and he isn't going to take it anymore. The newspaperman that Boston Liberals most love to hate is now syndicated nationally (not available in New England states).
2 a week

"Main Street U.S.A."
by William Murchison.
The Dallas Morning News' Associate Editor has a way of striking deep into the heart of the matter with a homespun style—sometimes humorous, sometimes serious, always interesting.
2 a week

Social Commentary

"A Minority View"
by Walter E. Williams.
This George Mason University economics professor-turned-successful columnist learned many of his lessons in the School of Hard Knocks. From welfare to "poverty pimps" there are no sacred cows in Williams' political pasture.
1 a week

Consumer Affairs

"Of Consuming Interest"
by the Editors of Consumers' Research Magazine.
How to: stay healthy; get the most for your money; choose the best products for your purposes and use them safely; and other helpful "lifestyle" hints from the Editors of America's oldest consumer magazine. 1 a week

National Defense

"Mohr on National Defense"
by Maj. Gen. Henry Mohr (U.S. Army-Ret.).
The St. Louis Globe-Democrat's military affairs columnist—former Director of Army Reserve forces—speaks from experience . . . and shows he learned his lessons well. Plain talk about the military and defense issues from one who has been there. 1 a week

The Economy

"The Economy in Mind"
by Warren Brookes.
Economic policy made understandable by the Detroit News' award-winning analyst. 2 a week

The Media

"For The Record"
by Herb Schmertz.
A long-time thorn-in-the-side of many in the media establishment, the controversial public affairs chief of Mobil Oil discusses what's right and wrong with our popular culture: tv, the print media, film, the theater.
1 a week

International Affairs

"From Abroad"
by Anthony Lejeune.
Observations on the state-of-the-world by a veteran British commentator. Dateline London.
1 a week

Editorial Cartoons

Gibb 2 a week
Barnett 3 a week
Heritage Features' two award-winning political cartoonists—Jerry Barnett of The Indianapolis News and Tom Gibb of the Altoona Mirror—poke fun at the pompous, and boost the hard-pressed. Combine the two for one-a-day laughs.

Gibb

Barnett

Political Trivia

"The Answer Man"
by Andy Seamans.
Heritage Features' Managing Editor recreates the popular political trivia feature he authored for almost a decade for Human Events, the conservative newsweekly. A special question-and-answer feature especially for your commentary or feature pages.
1 a week

The Changing Times Financial Service

The best in personal-finance features, available free to all AP members

Editors, if your paper is a member of the Associated Press, you can offer your readers a full array of feature articles from Kiplinger's Changing Times magazine, the leader in personal finance journalism for almost 40 years. Every month more than 1.3 million subscribers turn to Changing Times magazine for advice on money management, taxes, careers, investments, insurance, and more.

As an AP member you too can give your readers the information they need to make better decisions about managing their money. Information to help them lead richer, more satisfying lives.

Here's a sample of articles that have been available through the Changing Times Financial Service in recent months:

- Buying Yourself a Business
- How to Protect Yourself from Investment Scams
- Picking a Super Financial Planner
- Credit Cards: Where the Good Deals Are
- Insurance That's Also an Investment
- You Can Afford a Vacation Home
- Any Stock Bargains Left?

This is how the Changing Times Financial Service works: Every weekend AP sends out a package from Changing Times with three feature articles totaling 2,500 words. The articles travel on AP's high-speed wire, DataStream, the AP Newsfeature wire and by AP mail as camera-ready copy. There's nothing to order, no additional fees to pay. All you have to do is select the articles you want to use.

For more information on how your paper can take advantage of the Changing Times Financial Service, call Patricia Mertz at Changing Times (202) 887-6589, or Dan Perkes at AP (212) 621-1821. At your request, we'll also send you a Changing Times Financial Service logo to use with the copy.

Time for Summer Reading

Newspapers are fun to read, but you can do other things with them, too.

Not only can you read a newspaper, but you can also cut it, paste it and write on it. (Make sure your parents have finished it, please.)

Summer reading is important. It helps you keep the reading skills you've learned. Summer reading is also fun. Reading is an entertaining thing to do. It's a super summer pastime.

Kids are finding that their newspaper is a super reading source found in most homes.

TV Program About Books

Levar Burton, the host, meets Kermit the Frog on one of the shows. Five new shows have been added to a list of 20 reruns.

"Reading Rainbow" is a show that encourages kids from 5 to 8 to read.

On each show, a famous star reads a kids' book. Kids themselves also give three book reviews.

Check your local PBS listing for the time.

Stickers Get Kids Into Reading

Libraries often have storytellers, films and plays. Many have special programs. For example:

- In Independence, Mo.: Readers who read a certain number of books are awarded certificates, stickers and free paperback books.
- In Washington, D.C., and parts of Maryland and Virginia: Young readers who visit their libraries are issued "reading passports." Each time they read a different type of book, they are issued a special sticker to stick in their passport.

Some of the Washington area stickers:

THE MINI PAGE, recognized for its educational value, is a proven ally in newspapers' attempts to win young readers and combat illiteracy

What a year!

For all of us at Universal Press Syndicate, its subsidiaries, Universal Licensing and Trexler Industries, and its book-publishing affiliate, Andrews, McMeel & Parker, this has been a year of remarkable excitement and unparalleled accomplishment.

Four Universal creators received special recognition for their outstanding work: the Pulitzer for commentary to Jimmy Breslin; the Pulitzer for editorial cartooning to Jules Feiffer; the National Cartoonists Society Award for Best Humor Panel to Gary Larson; and the coveted Reuben Award for Cartoonist of the Year to Lynn Johnston, the first woman to be so honored. In addition, collections of Larson's THE FAR SIDE broke publishing records, with 3.5 million books sold.

During this past year, many of our features — old and new — showed a strong growth in sales, reflecting our belief in the commitment to quality and service. DEAR ABBY, William F. Buckley, James J. Kilpatrick and Sylvia Porter continue to be leaders in this industry. The success of relative newcomers such as Robert Maynard, CALVIN AND HOBBES and A TASTE OF AMERICA by Jane and Michael Stern, reveal a market receptive to new names and concepts.

We are seeking non-traditional avenues, too, to become more valuable to newspapers. Universal is the exclusive newspaper syndicate licensed to market Knight-Ridder's comprehensive database service, VU/TEXT.

And one final item that has made this a memorable year for us. We have moved to Main Street, U.S.A. — The Heartland. Our new address: 4900 Main Street, Kansas City, Missouri 64112 — a move prompted by the growth of personnel and operations.

It is your strong support and confidence that have made all this possible, and each one of us at Universal wishes to thank you.

John P. McMeel
President

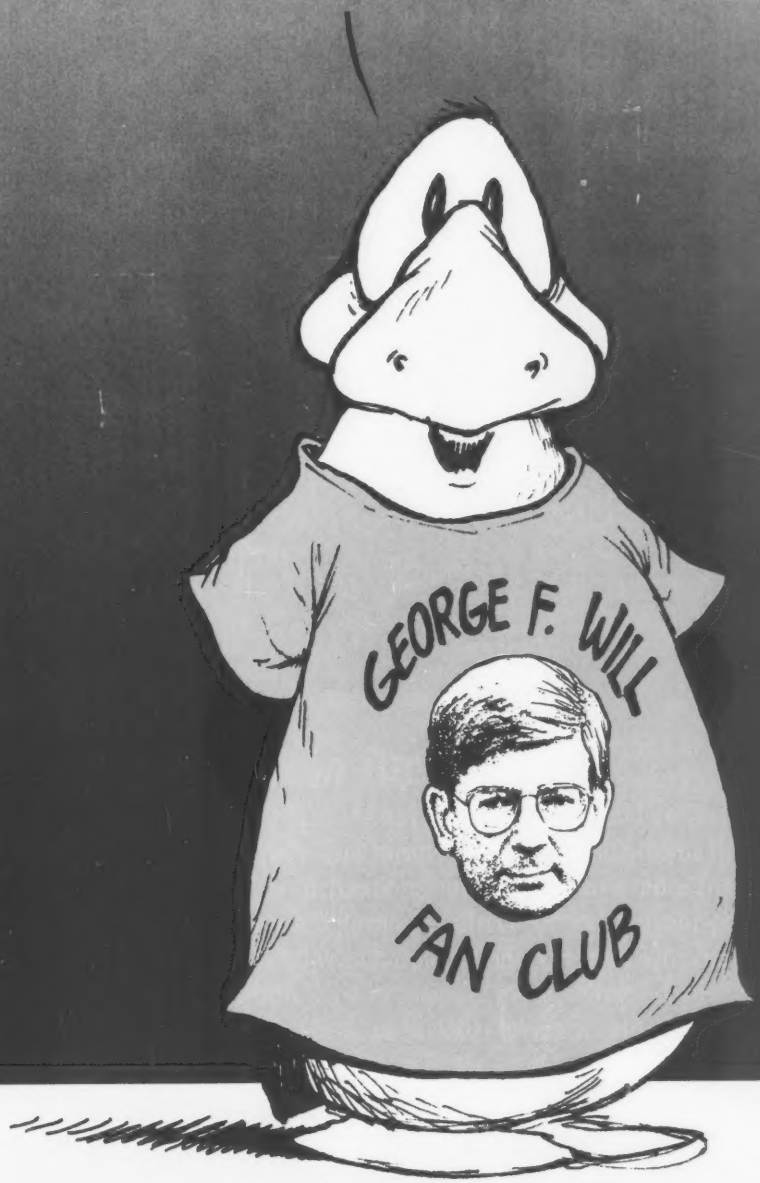
THE WASHINGTON POST WRITERS GROUP...

THE SYNDICATE OF CHOICE AMONG US DISCRIMINATING PUNDIT GROUPIES.

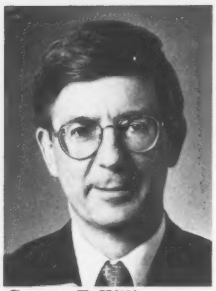


The Washington Post Writers Group

EDITORIAL PAGE FEATURES

David S. Broder
The nation's best newspaper political reporter also writes the best political commentary, in a twice-weekly column, and is carried by nearly 300 papers.

William Raspberry
Unbiased analysis of urban affairs earned this former local writer national syndication. Twice a week, common sense on education, drug abuse, housing, justice.



George F. Will
"Best writer on any subject, any newspaper," according to Washington Journalism Review's readers poll. Will's column is a fixture on 450 editorial pages. Twice weekly.

Lou Cannon
The Washington Post's chief White House correspondent and Reagan biographer captures the thinking and behind-the-scenes action in the Oval Office. Weekly.

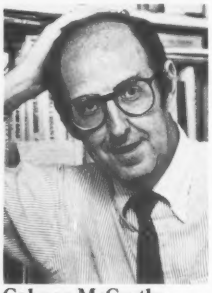
Richard Cohen
Iconoclastic and humanistic. Sifts current issues with a man-in-the-street stance. Three times a week.

Neal Peirce
Cities and states are his beat. A Johnny Appleseed of civic action. 1986 APSA award-winner. Weekly, with optional illustrations.

Edwin M. Yoder, Jr.
Balanced and elegantly phrased commentary in a twice-weekly opinion-page column. American traditions and institutions are his main subjects.

Mike Lane
The Baltimore Evening Sun's editorial cartoonist makes his liberal points with clarity, precision and distinctive humor. Four horizontal cartoons a week.

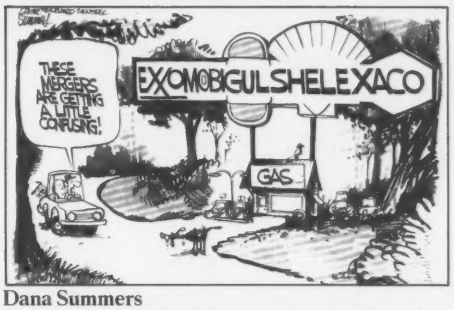
Geoffrey Moss
Mossprints add a touch of class to the look of editorial pages. Conceptual graphics on issues in the news. Ten timely drawings each month.



Colman McCarthy
"A stubbornly independent free citizen. . . . valuable and vital journalist."—Nat Hentoff. A maverick liberal who stirs reader commendation and rejoinder. Twice-weekly.

Ellen Goodman
Contemporary issues receive a fresh, discerning look twice weekly from this Boston Globe columnist. Winner of a Pulitzer in 1980, she is a favorite with readers of 394 papers. Editorial page or lifestyle section, she's a sure hit.

Hobart Rowen
"Best newspaper business reporter," say Washington Journalism Review readers. And Rowen's twice-weekly economic policy column capitalizes on that reporting. Winner of two Gerald Loeb awards.



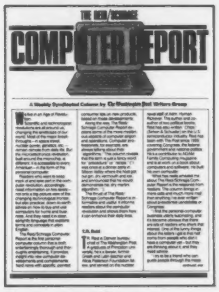
Dana Summers
The award-winning editorial cartoonist of the Orlando Sentinel sends out four horizontal cartoons a week. His work is sprightly, bright and slightly to the right, and frequently reprinted in Newsweek, the New York Times and U.S. News & World Report.

Charles Krauthammer
He won the 1984 National Magazine Award for writing "different in subject and format but unified by elegance of style, originality of insight and the refreshing absence of a doctrinaire point of view." His weekly op-ed column continues the tradition.

Philip Geyelin
The Washington Post's former editorial page editor, now editor-in-residence at Johns Hopkins Foreign Policy Institute, writes weekly on foreign affairs. Gives readers a head start on global issues.

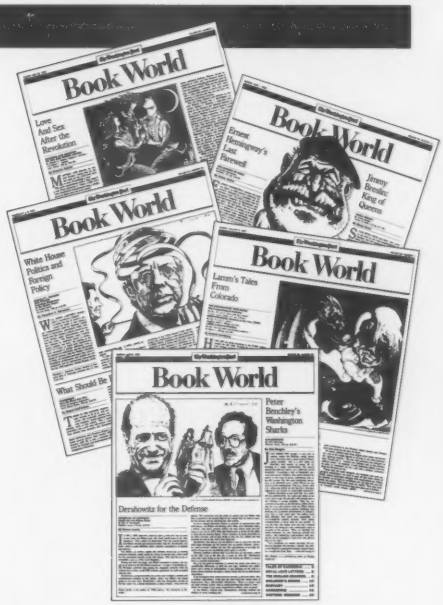
GENERAL FEATURES

Tom Shales
This Washington Post television critic is among the most popular: "Probably the favorite, rated by many as the best. . . . he combines wit and substantive comment." — Television Age. Complements local coverage and gives readers a wider TV scorecard. Thrice weekly.



Computer Report
This weekly column by Washington Post staffers T.R. Reid and Michael Schrage offers both nitty-gritty, user-oriented advice for computerphiles and state-of-the-industry reports.

Kenneth R. Harney
"The Nation's Housing" column perfectly complements local real-estate copy. It emphasizes hard, breaking news on financing homes, tax and governmental policies affecting the industry, and other consumer/investor issues. Weekly, with optional illustrations.

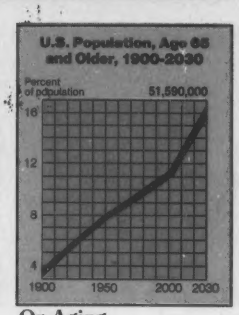


Book World
The Washington Post Book World Service offers both best-seller and undiscovered titles in its daily and Sunday-supplement reviews, plus literary features.

Video Review
This new weekly column, excerpted from the magazine that's the authority on home video, offers the best content on both new equipment and the latest in cassette programming.

Lug Nuts
With all the traffic jams and used-car salesmen, it's a wonder we're not nuts. But we are: We're Lug Nuts, fighting the national obsession with motor transportation. It's drawn six times a week in both strip and panel sizes. By editorial cartoonist Dana Summers.

Jane Bryant Quinn
For a decade her twice-weekly personal-finance column has helped readers manage money through good times and bad. Hancock Award winner.



On Aging
Those 65 and over are the most rapidly growing segment of the population. This weekly column by the UCLA/USC Long Term Care Gerontology Center is in q&a format.

Dr. Jean Mayer
Two "Food for Thought" columns a week—one an essay, the other a q&a—are a "must" for food or health pages. Dr. Mayer and dietitian Jeanne Goldberg help readers live longer, healthier lives.

Cheeverwood
A precocious 12-year-old trying to circumvent puberty leads the cast of characters in this comic strip portraying suburbia as it really is. Daily and Sunday by Michael Fry.

Phyllis C. Richman
A full-course weekly food column by the Washington Post's critic. "Richman's Table" offers an essay on people making food news; a recipe; and "Tabletalk," a minifeature of briefs and gossip.

American Health
This magazine won a 1985 National Magazine Award for general excellence, cited for its "lively and credible blend of news and service journalism." Excerpted twice weekly.

Bloom County
Berke Breathed has assembled the most beguiling group of human and animal characters ever to adorn comic pages. The result is topical satire and straightout humor in 900 daily, Sunday and college papers. Bloom County always appears near the top in polls.

What creators should know when trying to get a feature syndicated

By David Astor

United Media receives 5,000 to 10,000 submissions a year from cartoonists and writers hoping to become syndicated. It introduces six to eight new features a year.

King Features Syndicate gets 3,000 to 3,500 submissions. It too releases about six to eight regular features a year.

Universal Press Syndicate receives well over 2,500 submissions. It annually comes out with about 10 new features.

Other large syndicates have similar ratios. And even a smaller operation like Sun Features Inc. (which distributes the work of seven creators) gets mail from at least 500 people annually. And SFI doesn't introduce any new features some years.

Making things harder for creators writing to syndicates is the fact that a number of feature distributors find over half their new properties each year in ways other than mail submissions.

In short, it is extremely tough even for very talented creators to get syndicated. But people seeking national distribution of their comics, editorial cartoons, columns, and other features can lessen these daunting odds at least a little bit by approaching syndicates the right way. E&P interviewed a number of syndicate executives to find out what this "right way" is, and also talked with an attorney who represents creators to ascertain what the relatively few people accepted by syndicates should know prior to signing a contract.

Before people even write a syndicate, they should familiarize themselves with what's already in newspapers. "No syndicate wants a column or comic strip that is similar to other material already in syndication," stated a King executive. "At the same time, creators — in an effort to be original and different — should not try to do something that has an extremely narrow focus. You have to find the balance between the two."

If creators feel their feature may indeed have a niche, they should then send their idea to a top syndicate editorial person — who might have the title of editor, editorial director, executive editor, comics editor, etc. Most syndicates greatly prefer that creators write rather than phone in ideas.

What about simultaneous submissions? Some executives interviewed said they want their syndicates to be first to see material. But a larger number said they could understand why creators, aware of how slight their chances are of getting syndicated, would want to send mailings to several companies at once.

The mailing should contain some sort of cover letter (typed or neatly written) describing the feature and the creator's background/qualifications. Most syndicate executives agreed that this letter should be as concise as possible.

The execs differed, however, over whether it is helpful for creators to include comments from people praising their feature. Some said testimonials are acceptable if they come from newspaper editors or other relevant people ("if you have Aunt Nelly telling you how great her nephew is, it's not going to help at all," noted SFI president William Kennedy). But others said they are not really needed ("the only helpful testimonial is one I'm going to give after reading the feature," said David Hendin, senior vice president and editorial director of United Media — the parent of United Feature Syndicate and Newspaper Enterprise Association.

Some execs agreed that resumes should be included, but others stated that they are not always necessary. Washington Post Writers Group sales manager Al Leeds said he likes to know the age of the creator in order to ascertain how many years the person might be with the syndicate.

Virtually all syndicate execs recommended that submissions stick to basics. "Fancy packages and women jumping out of cakes just doesn't do," said Universal vice president and editorial director Lee Salem.

The most important part of any submission, of course, is feature samples. Syndicate execs differed somewhat over how many should be included, but the basic averages are three-to-four weeks of episodes when comics are involved, a couple weeks of drawings when editorial cartoons are sent, and six to eight pieces when it comes to columns. Copies — never originals — should always be sent. And Salem and Hendin said material should not be "large" and "unwieldy." For one thing, Hendin said this makes it hard for him to put a mailing into his briefcase to look at during evenings or weekends, meaning it might take longer for the creator to get a reply.

A stamped, self-addressed envelope is a must if people want to receive replies (and their material back) from syndicates, who usually take anywhere from a few days to six weeks to study submissions and then notify creators of their decision.

If creators receive a rejection (which, due to the high volume of submissions, often comes via form letter), they still have several options. These include trying self-syndication (see E&P, August 27, 1983), sending their feature idea to another syndicate, improving the idea and writing the same syndicate again, or coming up with an entirely new idea. "I would encourage them to keep trying," said Los Angeles Times Syndicate vice president and editor Don Michel. "In many cases, the third, fourth, or fifth submissions have been successful."

When it comes to the select group of features that do arouse syndicate interest, what should their creators be aware of when negotiating contracts? Some answers were offered by attorney Arnold Schwartzman, whose clients include Mike Peters (a United editorial cartoonist and creator of the Tribune Media Services-distributed "Mother Goose & Grimm" comic) and political cartoonist Tony Auth of Universal. The president of the Dayton, Ohio-based Schwartzman Media Communications also represented "The Far Side" cartoonist Gary Larson in his 1984 switch from Chronicle Features to Universal.

• Ownership rights. Schwartzman stated that creators should try to retain basic overall ownership rights on their property; if need be, they can bargain for this by giving syndicates certain subsidiary rights — such as those involving licensing — for the term of the contract. In cases where the syndicate insists on having ownership rights. Schwartzman advised creators to only sign them away for the duration of the contract — not for perpetuity.

• Division of earnings. Most contracts call for creators to get 50% of earnings (from what each newspaper pays for the feature, from licensed products, etc.) and syndicates to get the other 50%. Schwartzman said this is not "cast in stone," and that some creators can get more than half. He added that a sliding scale is sometimes used — whereby creators might get, say, 55% of earnings in a contract and then 60% when the contract is renewed.

• Various costs. Many syndicates, Schwartzman said, have creators pay at least part of a feature's production, mailing, and other costs — which can, in effect, lower the percentage of earnings creators receive. Creators in this situation, he stated, should try to negotiate some kind of cap on their share of these costs.

• Contract length. Schwartzman said he prefers three-year contracts with a three-year renewal clause. Contracts, however, are often five and five and sometimes ten and ten. He added that he likes contracts to have an early termination clause (for both the creator and syndicate) if a feature is not selling well. And when the first phase of a contact ends, he said syndicates should have reached a predetermined performance level (such as selling the feature to a certain number of papers) in order to have the right to renew.

• Creative rights. Creators, said the attorney, should ask for contract language saying that they will be consulted if the syndicate wants to make a change in a particular installment of their feature.

• Insurance. Creators, said the attorney, should seek libel protection (such as becoming a third-party beneficiary on a syndicate's insurance coverage) as well as a death and disability clause.

• Syndicate strengths and weaknesses. Before signing a contract, creators should see whether a syndicate has other successful cartoonists and writers on its roster, low turnover among executives and staff, a strong sales force (including people in the field), a good promotion person or department, book publishing and licensing capabilities, etc.

How many of the things discussed by Schwartzman can creators reasonably hope to get in their contracts? Schwartzman said it depends on the syndicate as well as the talent and clout of the creator (a famous cartoonist switching syndicates, for instance, has much more negotiating leverage). It also depends on what kind of attorney or agent is representing the creator — or whether there is any representation at all involved. And some creators, of course, are so thrilled to be syndicated that they would sign virtually anything.

A longer version of this story originally appeared in the August 31, 1985 issue of E&P.

QUIET CONTROVERSY

Moneywise
by Paul
Barringer

More than just advice on the stock market or real estate, Barringer's column addresses the entire spectrum of financial planning concerns. As one of the few fee-only financial planners in the country, he freely discusses the sometimes questionable sales tactics used by today's financial service companies. His unbiased approach to money management means that your readers get objective advice.

Being Human

by Mary Margaret Carberry

NEW! 2-minute commentaries on the happenings that amuse, bemuse, or confuse grassroots folks. Wry or wrathful. Light or intense. Sometimes sentimental; sometimes controversial. Always thought-provoking. Let your readers laugh, cry, nod their heads, or shake their fists with this insightful author in her newest column that holds up the world to a scrutable mirror.

Ideal for op-ed. 600 words. Weekly. Syndicate queries invited.

"TIMELY—INCISIVE—EXCELLENT READER RESPONSE" (Rochester, N.Y. Democrat & Chronicle)

SENIOR CLINIC
by Frank MacInnis, M.D.
Fellow, American + Canadian College of Physicians

A specialist writes America's only health column specifically addressing the medical problems of past middle life.

The nation's 28 million seniors now exceed the teen age population and are growing by over 1600 every day.

"Warm, witty and authoritative," "SENIOR CLINIC" caters exclusively to this ever increasing mature segment of your readership. Weekly, 600 words."

Dr. Frank MacInnis, HFM Literary Enterprises, Box 307, Edmonton, Alberta, Canada T5J 2J7, (403) 973-2361.
